CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURTS
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

Jerry Micheal Plummer

CASE NO: 17-CV-5531

VS.
Zydek, et al.,

HONORABLE: VIRGINIA M. KENDALL

Motion for new court date, and Appointment of Counsel.

Now comes plaintiff with respect of the Courts, here by ask that this Honorable Judge grants this Motion for new court date, and Appointment of Counsel.

- 1) Plaintiff on 11-12-19, was unable to hear or understand what was being said. Do to the Volume, plaintiff ask to have what was said be writing to him in a letter.
- 2) Plaintiff is asking for Appointment of Counsel, because plaintiff has been Aided by a PRE-trial detainee. Plaintiff is no long around that PRE-trial detainee, so plaintiff only ask that of the courts, because plaintiff do not understand legalese.
- 3) Plaintiff did not receive has copy of the Motion that the State Attorney, was order to file. STATE'S Motion was to have two out of three claims dismissed, but the State failed to meet the dead line Dec 04, 2019.

- 4) Plaintiff never received a Motion from the State, Dec 04, 2019. So plaintiff is responding to let the courts know that he never received any Motion.
- 5) Plaintiff has fault his criminal case for fifty two month, and has had this civil case for twenty seven months with no counsel. Plaintiff ask that you only grant him appointment of counsel, a counsel to help him fight and win his civil case.
- 6) Plaintiff is asking to know the next court date, and thanks the Honorable Courts for granting his motion for appointment of counsel.

And Respectfully Submitted
